

Acts 13, Missionary Journey 1, part 1, a mad lib _____ was now called Paul. He and Barnabas were in _____, (word starting with "S") (word starting with "A")

fasting and _____ God with the Christians there.
(action verb + ing)

The Holy _____ said that Barnabas and Paul had a special job to do. They were (noun)

to go preach about _____ all over the Roman world.
(a person)

First they went to a/an _____ called Cyprus with John _____ as (noun) (word starting with "M")

their helper. They met a man named Elymas who was a _____.
(occupation)

Elymas tried to stop them from talking about Jesus so Paul said he would be _____.
(adjective)

and not able to see the light of the _____. And it happened just as Paul had said.
(noun)

They then went on a _____ to the mainland, where John left them.
(noun)

On the _____ day they went to a _____ to teach about Jesus.
(word starting with "S") (a building)

They told the people about how God had saved the Jews from _____ in the past (noun starting with "E")

and had given them people like King _____ to lead them. They said that Jesus was (noun starting with "D")

from that king's family and they talked about how Jesus had _____ and then been (action verb, past tense)

raised from the _____.
(noun)

They said this was really good _____ and that the people could be saved!
(noun)

The people asked them to come back the next _____ to tell them more.
(a time period)

But so many people came that the Jews became very _____.
(emotion)

and Paul and Barnabas said they would tell the _____ about Jesus instead.
(something alive, plural)

The Jewish leaders made Paul and Barnabas leave, so they went to a different _____.
(noun)

But the Christians were full of joy and the _____ Spirit.
(adjective)