

Acts 14, Missionary Journey 1, part 2, a mad lib

Paul and Barnabas had traveled to _____ and they went, as usual, to the (word starting with "I")

_____ to talk about _____.
(a building) (word starting with "J")

Some people believed, but others didn't. Still, Paul and Barnabas preached for a long time there until the leaders decided to throw _____ at them. But Paul found out about it and they escaped to the city of _____.
(noun, plural)

(word starting with "L")

In that city, there was a man who couldn't _____ because his _____ (action verb) (body part, plural)

hadn't worked right since he was born. Paul saw that he had _____ to be healed, (noun)

so he told him to stand up and the man _____ up and began to walk.
(action verb, past tense)

The crowd was very excited and said that Paul and Barnabas were _____.
(noun, plural)

They said that Barnabas was _____ and Paul was _____.
(word starting with "Z") (word starting with "H")

The priest even brought out _____ to sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas.
(something alive, plural)

Paul and Barnabas were very upset about this and tore their _____.
(noun, plural)

They told the crowd that they were only _____ too and that everyone should (something alive, plural)

turn to the living God who made the heavens and the _____ and the (noun, something big)

_____. They said God gave them rain from _____ and (noun, something wet) (a place)

plenty of _____ to eat and joy in their _____.
(noun, plural) (body part, plural)

Still, it was very hard to keep the crowd from offering _____ to them.
(noun, plural)

Then some Jews from other cities came and convinced the crowd to throw _____ (noun, plural)

at Paul. They thought Paul was _____, but he wasn't, and Paul and Barnabas (adjective)

went to the town of _____ and then went back to Antioch, visiting the Christians on the (noun starting with "D")

way and then telling the church in Antioch everything God had done through them.