

Acts 16, Missionary Journey 2, part 1, a mad lib

Paul and Silas went to the city of _____, where they were joined by Timothy, whose (word starting with "L")
mother was a _____ and his father a _____.
(noun) (noun)

The Holy _____ kept them from preaching in one area, and the _____ of (noun) (noun)
Jesus from going to another area, but then Paul had a _____ about a (noun)
_____ begging them to come to his area, so that's where they went.
(noun, something alive)

In the _____ of Philippi they met a woman named Lydia who sold _____ cloth.
(noun) (adjective)

She and her family became Christians and invited Paul to stay at their _____.
(noun)

One day they met a girl who was a _____. She had a _____ that let her (an occupation) (noun)

tell the future and she kept following Paul and shouting that he served God and was telling the people how to be _____. Finally Paul became upset and healed the girl.
(action verb, past tense, something that can be done to you)

The girl's _____ were very upset and went to the _____.
(noun, plural) (occupation, plural)

Paul and Silas were beaten with _____ and thrown into _____ and their (noun, plural) (a place)

_____ fastened in chains. Around midnight, Paul and Silas were _____ (body part, plural) (action verb + ing)

and singing _____ to God. Suddenly a powerful _____ shook the place (noun, plural) (noun)

they were in and the _____ flew open.
(noun, plural)

The _____ thought everyone had escaped and he was very _____.
(occupation) (emotion)

But Paul shouted that everyone was there, so the man asked them what he should do to be saved.

Paul and Silas said to believe in the _____ Jesus and the man and his whole family (occupation)

listened and were baptized. The next morning some _____ came and said Paul and (occupation, plural)

Silas could go free, but Paul said they were Roman _____ and shouldn't have been (noun, plural)

treated so badly, so then they were asked nicely to leave, which they did.