

Acts 19-20, Missionary Journey 3, a mad lib

Paul went to the city of _____ where, as usual, he went to the _____ (word starting with "E") (a place) to teach about Jesus. He taught there for _____ months, but some of the (a number)
_____ said bad things about Jesus, so Paul went to a _____ (an occupation, plural) (a place) to teach instead. He spent _____ years there and lots of people heard about Jesus.
(a number)
If people even touched Paul's _____ they would be healed, so 7 _____ (noun, likely plural) (something alive, plural)
of a man named Sceva tried to heal a man with an evil _____, but he beat them up.
(something alive)
After awhile, a man named Demetrius, who made idols out of _____ got upset because (noun)
people weren't buying as many of his idols of _____.
(word starting with "A")
He called together his friends and they decided it was Paul's fault, because Paul was saying that gods made by peoples' _____ weren't really gods at all.
(body part, plural)
So they became very _____ and began shouting that their goddess was great.
(an emotion)
Soon people in the whole city were gathered at the _____ shouting and causing trouble.
(a place)
Paul wanted to go talk to them, but his _____ wouldn't let him.
(noun, plural)
Eventually the city _____ quieted everyone down and Paul went to other cities.
(noun)
In Troas, Paul talked and talked until the middle of the _____ and a young man named
(noun)
Eutychus fell asleep and fell out of a _____. They thought he was _____, (noun) (adjective)
but Paul put his _____ around him and he was fine.
(body part, likely plural)
Paul was headed back to _____, but he stopped to talk to the _____ (word starting with "J") (occupation, plural) of Ephesus first. He told them that he wouldn't see them again and that they should watch over the
_____. They got on their _____ and prayed. They were (noun) (body part, plural)
_____ that they wouldn't see Paul again, and he got on the _____ to leave.
(an emotion) (noun)