

Jesus Raises Lazarus from the Dead, a mad lib

Jesus had 3 very good _____: Mary, Martha, and Lazarus.
(something alive, plural)

One day Lazarus became very, very _____, so his sisters sent a _____ (adjective) (noun)

to Jesus to tell him that the person he _____ needed Jesus' _____.
(verb ending in "ed") (noun)

Jesus loved the 3 very much, but after he heard about Lazarus, he still _____ (noun ending in "ed")

for _____ more _____ before he went.
(a number) (a unit of time, plural)

When Jesus arrived with his _____ disciples, he was told that Lazarus had already (a number)

been in the tomb for _____ days.
(a number)

Many _____ had come to comfort Mary and Martha, but they were still both (noun, plural)

very _____.
(an emotion)

Jesus asked where they had put Lazarus, and when they led him to the tomb, Jesus _____.
(noun ending in "ed")

The tomb was a _____ with a _____ rolled in front to close it.
(noun) (noun, something heavy)

Jesus told them to open it up, but Martha told him that by now it would smell _____.
(adjective)

Jesus told them to believe and they would see God's _____, so they opened it.
(a noun starting with "G")

Jesus called to Lazarus to come out and he did, all wrapped up in _____.
(noun, something long)

Jesus told them to unwrap him and let him go and they did.

Many who had come saw and believed and put their _____ in Jesus.
(noun)

Jesus proved that he is the _____ and the _____!!!
(noun starting with "R") (noun starting with "L")

THE END