

Luke 10, a mad lib

Then Jesus sent out _____ of his followers in groups of _____ to the towns (number) (number)

ahead of them. Jesus told them that the _____ was really big, and they needed more workers. And that they were like _____ among _____.
(noun)

(baby animal, plural) (animal plural)

If a town didn't welcome them, they were to wipe off even the _____ from their feet.
(noun, plural, something small)

The followers came back excited, saying that even the _____ obeyed them! Jesus said (noun, plural)

that he had seen Satan fall like _____ and that they would walk over _____ (noun, possibly plural) (animal, plural)

and _____ without being hurt!
(animal, plural)

A Jewish teacher tested Jesus by asking him what the most important _____ was.
(noun)

They agreed that it was to love God and love your _____ as yourself, so then the teacher (noun)
asked who his was and Jesus told a story.

Once upon a time, a man was going from _____ to _____ and some
(a name starting with "J") (another name starting with "J") _____ attacked him and beat him up. A _____ came by, but didn't stop (occupation, plural) (occupation)

to help. Then a _____ came by and didn't help. Last, a _____ came by (occupation) (noun starting with "S") and he stopped and put _____ on the man's wounds, put him on his own _____, (a liquid) (animal)

took him to a _____, and gave the innkeeper _____ to care for the hurt man.
(building) (noun, plural)

Jesus asked who the helper was, the teacher answered correctly, and Jesus told him to do the same.

Jesus and his disciples kept going and went to a village where a _____ named Martha lived with her _____ Mary. Mary sat at Jesus' _____ and listened to him.
(noun)

(noun) (body part)

But Martha was very busy doing all of the work. Finally she got upset and complained to Jesus and told Jesus to make Mary _____ her!

(verb, something you can do to someone else)

Jesus said that Martha was worried about many things, but Mary had chosen the best thing!