

Luke 11, a mad lib

Jesus' _____ wanted to learn how to pray. So Jesus taught them.
(occupation, plural)

He said, "Father, may your _____ be honored. May your _____ come.
(noun) (noun, something big)

Give us each day our daily _____. Forgive our _____ as we forgive (food, possibly plural) (noun, plural)
everyone else. And keep us from falling into _____ when we are tempted."
(noun)

Jesus also said, "If your son asks for a _____, will you give him a _____?
(animal) (animal)

Or if he asks for a _____, would you give him a _____?" Or course not!
(food, singular) (animal)

Jesus drove a demon out of a man who couldn't _____ and some people said he (action verb)

did it by the power of _____, the _____ of demons. But Jesus (noun starting with "B") (occupation) said that didn't make sense! He was driving out demons with the help of God's _____.
(body part)

Then Jesus said the people were evil because they asked for a _____, but he would (noun)

only give them the sign of _____.
(a noun starting with "J")

Jesus said that nobody would light a _____ and put it under a _____.
(noun) (noun)

Instead, they would put it on a _____ so that everybody could see it.
(noun)

Then Jesus was upset at the Pharisees for all of the things they did. He said they were like a _____ that was clean on the outside but dirty on the inside. He said that they gave (noun)

God a tenth of their _____ and _____, but they forgot to be fair.
(noun, plural) (noun, plural)

He said they liked to sit on the most important _____ and be greeted respectfully at the (noun, plural)
_____, but really they were like graves (full of yucky stuff).
(a place)

The teachers of the law upset Jesus also and he said they made people carry heavy _____.
(noun, plural)

but wouldn't lift even one _____ to help them. So the Pharisees and teachers of the (body part, singular)

law were very mad at him and asked him lots of _____ to try to trick him.
(noun, plural)