

Luke 13, a mad lib

Jesus told a story about a man with a _____ tree. The tree hadn't produced any fruit, (food)
so he was going to _____ it down. But his worker said to give it 1 more _____.!
(action verb, something you can do to something) (unit of time)

Jesus was saying that everyone needs to stop being bad and start being good now.

One Sabbath, Jesus was teaching in a _____ and there was a woman with a bent (building)

_____. Jesus healed her and she _____ up straight and praised God.
(body part) (action verb, past tense)

The synagogue _____ was _____ and said that people should come another day.
(occupation) (an emotion)

Jesus said that if they untie their _____ or _____ to give it _____.
(animal) (another animal) (a liquid)

on the Sabbath that this woman deserved to be set free on the Sabbath!

Then Jesus said that the kingdom of Heaven is like a tiny _____ seed that turns into a (food)

_____ that _____ sit in, or like yeast that a woman used to make _____.
(something big) (animal, plural) (a food, plural)

Jesus was saying that the kingdom of Heaven might start small, but it would get big!

Somebody asked Jesus if lots of people or not very many would be _____. Jesus said that (verb, past tense)

we should try to go through the _____ door to get to God's kingdom. He said that those (adjective)

who don't get into God's kingdom will _____ and grind their _____.
(action verb) (body part, plural)

But lots of other people will get to take their places at the _____ in God's kingdom!
(an event)

Some Pharisees told Jesus that he should go away because _____ wanted to kill him.
(word starting with "H")

Jesus called the man a _____ and said he would keep driving out _____.
(animal) (something alive, plural) and _____ people. And that he would keep going to the city of _____.
(verb, something you can do to someone else + ing) (word starting with "J")

He felt sorry for that city, saying that he wanted to gather them like a _____.
(animal)

gathers her chicks under her _____, but the people wouldn't let him.
(body part, plural)

Jesus was saying that he wanted to help the people, but some of them would not listen.