Luke 14, a mad lib

Jesus went to eat at a Pharisees _____. It was the Sabbath and there was a man whose (noun)

_____ was swollen. Jesus healed the man and then asked the Pharisees if they had a (noun)

child or _____ fall into a _____on the Sabbath, wouldn't they help?
(an animal)   (noun)

But they wouldn't answer him. Jesus watched how the guests picked what _____ to sit in, and he told another story. He told them that if they went to a wedding _____ that (noun)
(noun)

they should not take the place of _____, but they should take the lowest place and then (noun)

hopefully someone would ask them to move up to a better place!

Jesus also told them that if they gave a lunch or dinner that they shouldn't invite their _____ (kind of people)

or _____, but should invite the _____ people who couldn't repay them.
(another kind of people)   (adjective)

Jesus also told a story about a man who held a great _____ and invited lots of people.
(noun)

But they all made excuses. One said he had bought a _____ and another that he had (noun, something big)

5 pairs of _____ that he needed to try out. Another said he had gotten _____.
(animal, plural)   (verb, past tense, something that can be done to you)

The master became very _____ and told his servant to invite other people instead!
(emotion)

Later, Jesus was speaking to a large crowd of _____.
(noun, plural)

He told them that they must love him so much that it was like they hated their own family. He told them they must each carry their own _____. And that they needed to think about how much it would take to follow Jesus. Not thinking about that would be like a person who wanted to build a _____ who didn't make sure he had enough _____ first.

(noun)

(noun, something big)   (noun, plural)

Or like a _____ going to war who had _____ men and didn't think about (occupation)   (a number)

if it was enough to win.

And he said that whoever has _____ should listen!
(body part, plural)