

Luke 17, a mad lib

Jesus said that it would be better to be thrown into the _____ with a _____ (something big) (something heavy)

tied around your _____ than cause anyone to sin.
(body part)

He also said that if your brother or sister sins against you _____ times in one day, to forgive them.
(a number)

The apostles wanted more _____ and Jesus said that if they had as much of it as a (noun)
_____ seed that they could say to a _____ tree to be pulled up and it would be!
(a food) (another food)

Jesus was traveling to _____ and he met _____ men with a disease on their (noun starting with "J") (a number)
_____. They called out to him and said, "Jesus! _____! Have pity on us!"
(body part, plural) (an occupation)

Jesus told them to go show themselves to the _____ and while they were on their way, (another occupation, plural)
they were healed! One of them came back, praising God! He threw himself at Jesus' _____ (body part)

and thanked him. He was a man from _____.
(noun, starting with "S")

Jesus was sad that only one returned, but he told that man that his _____ had healed him.
(noun)

Jesus told his disciples that someday they would want to see him, but they wouldn't, and they shouldn't listen to people who say, "He's here!" or "He's there!" Instead, Jesus said that when he comes, he will be like _____ that flashes across the _____.
(noun) (noun)

He said it will be like in the days of _____, when people did all of their normal things (noun starting with "N")
until the _____ came and destroyed them.
(noun, something big)

And it was also the same in the days of _____ when people were doing normal things and (noun starting with "L")
then _____ rained down from _____ and destroyed them.
(noun) (a place)

So when Jesus returns, people will be doing normal things in normal places and there will be no more time left to change anything. So we should remember the past and not try to keep our _____ or we will lose them.

(noun, plural)