Luke 18, a mad lib

Jesus told a story so	that his	disciple	s would re	member to	pray. In the	story	, he said there	was a who wa	s not ve	ry nice. B	ut there was	a		who kept	bothering (occupation)					(another occ	cupation	1
him and begging for	justice.	At first h	ne wouldn'	t listen, but f	finally he sa	id tha	t he had better	give her justice or she might	•			him! Je		at if ev	en that man w	ould listen, that we should		•			•	re ma	de right quickly	' .
Then Jesus told a st	ory abou	ut a		who	o prayed an	ıd said	d he was glad h	ne wasn't a
		(r	noun starting v	with "F")
	. He sai	d that he	e was so g	ood that he			twice a we	ek. But a
(occupation, plural)					(action verb, p	ast tens	se, something you o	an do)
(collector	who wa	s praying r	nearby didn't	t even look i	up to		He
(noun)							(a place)
begged God for			. Jesus sa	id he was ad	ccepted by 0	God, k	out not the first	man.
(nou	ın)
Later on, people we	re bringir	ng babie	s to Jesus	so that he	could place	his		on them.
						(b	oody part, maybe pl	ural)
The disciples told the	e people	to go a	way, but J	esus said no	ot to - that G	God's
·		J	•				(noun)
belonged to people	like them	١.
Then a ruler asked .	Jesus wh	nat he ha	ad to do to	get		life.	Jesus said he s	should (adjective)
follow the 10			The ruler :	said he had	since he wa	as a _ (noun,	plural)					(r	noun)
Jesus said he neede	ed to do	one mor	e thing. H	le needed to	·		_ everything h	e had and _		(action verb
give the money to th	ie		an	d then come)		Jesus.
	(noun, p						ning you can do to s	someone else)
The ruler was very _		be	cause he	was very			Jesus said	it was very
	(an emotio				djective)			•
hard for people like	that to er	nter God	l's kingdor	n. It was as	hard as for	a		to go through a		. Whe	en the disc	iples heard t	hat, they we	ere	·	!
			J				an animal)	J
(noun, somet				•	, ,		an emotion)
After that, a		man wh	no was be	gging by the		ŀ	neard a crowd.	When (adjective			- \		(noun)
he found out Jesus v	•	e, he		until	,	ed to h	nim and healed	l him.