

Luke 19, a mad lib

Jesus was going through the city of _____, where Zacchaeus lived.

(noun starting with "J")

Zacchaeus was a _____ collector and had lots of _____. He wanted to see Jesus, but he was too _____, so he climbed a _____.

(noun)

(noun, plural)

(adjective)

(noun)

Jesus looked up at Zacchaeus and said, "Come down! I am going to your _____ today!"

(noun)

The people said, "Jesus has gone to be the guest of a _____!"

(noun)

But Zacchaeus said that he would give half of what he had to _____ people. Jesus said _____ had come to him and that he was now a member of Abraham's _____.

(adjective)

(noun)

(noun)

Jesus told a story about a man who was going to become a _____. He gave money to _____ of his slaves before he left. When he came back, he asked what they had done

(occupation)

(a number)

with the money. The first man had earned _____ times as much, so he was put in charge of

(a number)

that many _____. The second man had earned _____ times as much, and (noun, plural)

(a number)

again the master was _____. But the third slave said that he had hidden the money

(an emotion)

in a _____. The master was angry and took away his money and gave it to the first man.

(noun)

Now it was time for Jesus to go to Jerusalem. At the Mount of _____, he sent _____

(food, plural)

(a number)

disciples to get him a young _____. They put their _____ on it and (animal)

(item of clothing, plural)

Jesus rode it into Jerusalem.

People were excited that he was coming and they shouted, "Blessed is the _____ who

(an occupation)

comes in the _____ of the Lord!" The Pharisees told Jesus to make the people be quiet, but he said that if they kept quiet that the _____ would cry out!

(noun)

(noun, plural)

When Jesus saw Jerusalem, he began to _____. He said that enemies would come

(action verb)

and build a _____ against the city and smash it down and knock down every _____.

(noun, something long)

(noun)

Jesus then went to the _____.

(a building)

made them leave, saying, "My house will be a house where people can _____,

(action verb)

have made it a _____ for _____."

(noun)

(occupation, plural)

Every day Jesus came and taught, but the chief _____ and teachers of the _____ (occupation, plural)

(noun)

were angry and wanted to have him killed. But the people listened to Jesus' _____.

(noun, plural)