

Luke 1, a mad lib

Luke decided to write a _____ to his friend _____ about Jesus. He wrote:
(noun) (word starting with "Th")

once upon a time there was a _____ named Zechariah. His wife was named Elizabeth.
(occupation/job)

They were both very _____, but they were sad because they didn't have a _____.
(adjective/describing word) (noun, something alive)

One day Zechariah was at the temple, burning _____ when an angel appeared!
(noun)

Zechariah was terrified, so the angel said, "Do not be _____!"
(emotion)

The angel said Zechariah would have a son who would be full of the Holy _____ and (noun)

would get the _____ ready for Jesus.
(noun, plural)

Zechariah didn't believe the angel. He said, "But I am _____, and so is my wife!"
(adjective/describing word)

The angel said Zechariah would not be able to _____ until the baby came.
(verb, something you can do)

And he couldn't! Soon Elizabeth was pregnant. She was very, very _____.
(emotion)

_____ months later the angel, whose name was _____, took a message to Mary.
(number) (word starting with "G")

The angel told Mary that God was pleased with her and that she would have a son who would be a great _____ forever! Mary was _____.

(occupation/job) (emotion)

The angel said God's _____ would come on her and that Elizabeth was going to (noun)

have a baby too! Mary said she was the Lord's _____. Then the angel left.
(occupation/job)

Mary went to visit Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard her, the baby inside her _____.
(action verb, past tense)

Mary said, "My _____ gives glory to God. He brings down kings from their _____.
(body part) (noun, plural)

but lifts up people who are not _____. After a few months, Mary went back home.
(adjective/describing word)

After Elizabeth's baby was born, other people thought he should be named Zechariah after his father, so Zechariah wrote on a _____ to name him John.

(noun, something flat)

John grew up and became strong. And he lived in the _____.
(place/habitat)