

Luke 20, a mad lib

The _____ priests and teachers of the _____ came to Jesus and (adjective) (noun, likely plural)
asked him where he got his _____. Jesus asked them if John's _____ was (noun) (noun)
from people or from _____. They wouldn't answer, so he didn't answer their question either.
(a place)
Then Jesus told a story about a man who planted a _____ and rented it out.
(noun)
At harvest, the owner sent a messenger to get some _____, but the renters beat him up.
(a food, plural)
He sent more, and they kept beating them up. Finally, the owner sent his _____, but (noun)
the renters _____ him (just like the Jews with Jesus).
(action verb – something that you can do to someone else, past tense)
Then the leaders tried to trick Jesus. They asked him if he should pay _____ to (noun, plural)
_____ or not. Jesus asked to see a silver _____ and asked whose picture
(an occupation) (noun)
and words were on it. Then Jesus said to give to God what belongs to God!

Then another group tried to trick Jesus with a story about a woman who was married to _____ (a number) brothers. They wanted to know whose wife she would be in heaven. Jesus said that they were confused and that people in heaven won't be _____ or die. They'll be like the _____!
(adjective) (noun, plural)
He reminded them about the story of Moses with the burning _____ and how God (noun)
said that he was the God of _____, _____, and _____.
(name starting with "A") (name starting with "I") (name starting with "J")
After that, the leaders were afraid to ask more _____.
(noun, plural)
Jesus then said to watch out for the teachers of the _____ because they liked to walk
(noun)
in _____ and be greeted with _____. They want to (adjective) (item of clothing) (noun) sit in the most important _____ at the _____. They take (noun, plural) (a building)
_____ from widows and say long _____ to show off.
(noun, plural) (noun, plural)
Jesus said that God would punish them very much.
