

Luke 2, a mad lib

Caesar _____ decided that everybody in the empire needed to be counted, so (noun, starting with "A") all the people went back to their _____. Joseph and Mary went to _____.

(a place, plural) (noun, starting with "B") and there their baby boy was born. Mary wrapped him in _____ and put him in a (noun, something soft)

_____ full of _____ because the _____ was full.
(noun, something square-shaped) (food) (a building)

There were shepherds nearby taking care of their _____. An angel appeared to (animal, plural)

them and the _____ of God shone around them and they were _____.
(noun, starting with "G") (emotion)

The angel said he had good _____ for all people – that a special baby had been born!
(noun, likely plural)

Then lots of angels from _____ appeared and praised God. They said, "Glory to God (place)

in heaven and may there be _____ on _____ to those he is pleased with!"
(noun, starting with "P") (place)

The angels left and the shepherds went to see the special baby.

_____ days later Mary and Joseph named the baby Jesus. After that, at the proper time, they took Jesus to Jerusalem to offer 2 _____ as a sacrifice as the _____ of God said.
(number)

(animal, plural) (noun, starting with "L")

While there, a good man named Simeon came up to them. The Spirit had told him that he would not _____ until he saw God's Messiah. Simeon took Jesus in his _____ and (verb, something you can do) (body part, probably plural)

praised God. Then a _____ named Anna who spent her time _____ (occupation/job) (verb ending in -ing)

and _____ also came up to them and said the child would be very special.
(verb ending in -ing)

Joseph and Mary took Jesus back to _____ and he grew and became _____.
(place) (adjective)

When Jesus was _____, he went with his parents to the _____ in (number) (a special event)

Jerusalem. When his parents started for home, Jesus stayed behind. It took them _____ days to find him. They were very _____, but he said, "Didn't you know I had to be in my (emotion)
(a number)

Father's _____?" Mary remembered all of these things in her _____.
(noun) (body part)