

Luke 3, a mad lib

The word of God came to John, son of _____, in the _____.
(name, starting with "Z") (place)

John preached to the people and told them to be baptized in _____ and to stop
(a kind of liquid)

_____ so that God would forgive them.
(action verb, ending in -ing)

This was just like the prophet _____ said: "A messenger will say to prepare the (name, starting with "I") _____ of the Lord. Make the _____ level and the crooked _____ (noun) (noun, plural) (noun, plural) straight. And all people will see God's _____.

(noun, starting with "S")

John told the crowds that they were like a nest of _____!
(adjective) (animal, plural)

He said God could make children from Abraham even from the _____.
(noun, something hard, likely plural)

He told the people to share their _____ and their _____.
(noun, probably plural) (noun, maybe plural)

He told the tax collectors not to collect more _____ than they were supposed to.
(noun, plural)

He told the soldiers to not make people give them _____ and to be happy with how (noun, plural)

much _____ they were given.
(noun, possibly plural)

People wondered if John was God's _____.
(noun, starting with "M")

John said that he baptized with _____, but someone else would come who would (noun, possibly plural)

baptize with the Holy Spirit and _____. He said that he himself was not (noun, something dangerous)

good enough to untie this person's _____.
(noun, something you can wear)

But John told _____ that he was doing wrong and ended up in _____.
(name, starting with "H") (a place/building)

Before that, Jesus came to John to be baptized. As he was _____,
(action verb, ending in -ing)

_____ was opened and the Holy Spirit came down as a _____.
(noun, a place) (animal)

Jesus was about _____ when he began his special work.
(a number)

People thought that he was the son of _____.
(name, starting with "J")