

Luke 4, a mad lib

The Holy Spirit sent Jesus into the _____ where he ate nothing for _____ (place/location) (number) days. After that, he was very _____.

(adjective, something a person can be)

The devil told him to turn some _____ into _____.
(noun, plural) (a food)

Jesus said that people should not _____ just on that.
(action verb)

The devil showed Jesus all of the _____ of the world and said he would give it (noun, something big, plural)

to Jesus if he would only _____ the devil.
(action verb, something you can do to someone else)

Jesus said that a person should only _____ God.
(another action verb, something you can do to someone else)

Then the devil took Jesus to the highest point of the _____ and told him to (a building)

throw himself off. If he did, the _____ would lift him in their _____.
(occupation/job, plural) (body part, likely plural)

Jesus said. "Do not _____ God!" And the devil left.
(another action verb, something you can do to someone else)

Jesus went back to his home in _____ and on _____ he went (name starting with "N") (a day of the week) to the _____ and read from _____ on a _____.

(a building) (name starting with "I") (noun, something flat)

Jesus said that it was talking about him. He also said that the people would say, "_____, (occupation/job)

heal yourself! And do _____ here like you've done in other places!"
(noun, plural)

The people were angry and tried to throw Jesus from a _____, but he walked away.
(noun)

One day there was a man with an evil spirit who yelled at Jesus to _____.
(action verb)

But Jesus made the evil spirit come out, and he healed lots of other people who had evil spirits too.

He also went to the home of _____, because his mother-in-law had a high (name starting with "S")

_____. Jesus healed her and she began to _____ them.
(noun) (another action verb, something you can do to someone else)

Jesus healed lots of other people and made lots of other evil spirits leave, and the people didn't want him to _____, but he said he had to go preach the good _____.

(action verb) (noun, probably plural)