(action verb)

One day he was in a house and some men brought a friend who could not _____.
(action verb)

The house was full, so they went to the _____ and let their friend down in front of Jesus.
(part of a house)

Jesus told the man that his _____ were forgiven. The Pharisees were angry at him.
(noun, plural)

Jesus knew they were angry and he healed the man and told him to take his _____.
(noun)

and go home. The people were _____!
(emotion)

Then Jesus saw a _____ named Levi sitting at his _____ and asked him (occupation) (noun)

to follow him and Levi did! Levi invited Jesus to his house for dinner and lots of "sinners" were there.

That also made the Pharisees mad, but Jesus said that healthy people don't need a

_____, but _____ people do. And sinners needed him.
(occupation) (adjective)

People complained that John's disciples didn't always _____, but Jesus' disciples did.
(action verb)

Jesus said that you shouldn't patch new _____ with old ones.
(noun, plural)
