

Luke 6, a mad lib

Jesus said lots of interesting things in Luke chapter 6. One day his disciples were eating _____ in the field on the Sabbath and the Pharisees complained about it.

(noun, plural, something you can find outside)

Jesus said, "The Son of Man is _____ of the Sabbath."

(job/title)

Another Sabbath Jesus saw a man whose _____ was weak and twisted. The Pharisees were watching. Jesus said, "What does the _____ say to do on the Sabbath? Good or bad?"

(body part)

(noun)

Then Jesus healed the man. The Pharisees were _____!

(emotion)

One day, Jesus went up a _____ to pray and then he chose his _____ apostles.

(noun, something big)

(number)

He came down and saw a crowd of people. Many of them wanted to _____ him.

(verb, something you can do to someone else)

Jesus said, "Blessed are the needy, because God's _____ belongs to them!"

(noun)

He said, "Woe to those who are rich, because they have already had an easy _____."

(noun)

Jesus said, "Love your _____ . _____ for those who are mean to you."

(noun, plural)

(action verb)

He said, "If someone takes your _____, give them your _____ also."

(item of clothing)

(noun)

Jesus said, "If you lend _____ to your friends, should you be praised for that?"

(noun, plural)

He said, "Give you people who might not give back. Then you will be _____ of God."

(noun, plural)

Jesus said, "Don't _____ other people and it won't be done to you."

(verb, something you can do to someone else)

He said, "If a blind person leads another blind person, won't they both fall into a _____?"

(noun)

Jesus said, "Why do you look at the tiny piece of _____ in your friend's _____

(noun, something small)

(body part)

and ignore the _____ in yours?"

(noun, something big)

And he said, "A good _____ doesn't bear bad _____."

(noun)

(noun, plural)

Jesus said, "People who listen to my words and do what I say are like a man who built a _____ on solid _____. But those who don't listen are like a man who built on soft _____."

(noun)

(noun)

(noun, maybe plural)