

Luke 7, a mad lib

There was a Roman _____ whose servant was sick and about to _____.
(job/occupation) (action verb)

He sent some Jews to ask Jesus to come heal his servant. They said that Jesus should come help because the Roman had helped build their _____. As Jesus was on his way, (noun)

the Roman sent a message saying that he himself was not _____ enough for (adjective)

Jesus to come to his house. Jesus was _____! He said that he had not found anyone in Israel with _____ so strong. And he healed the servant from where he was.
(emotion)

(noun)

Another time, Jesus went to the town of _____ and saw a son who was _____.
(noun starting with "N") (adjective)

Jesus told the mother not to _____ and then healed the son.
(action verb)

The people said that a great _____ had appeared among them!
(job/occupation)

John sent _____ disciples to ask Jesus if he was the special one who was coming.
(number)

Jesus told them that blind people could _____, deaf people could _____, and (action verb) (action verb)

the good news was being announced to the _____.
(adjective)

Jesus then asked if John was _____ _____ waving in the wind or if he wore fancy (adjective) (noun)

_____. And then Jesus confirmed that John was a very special messenger.
(noun, plural)

A Pharisee invited Jesus over for dinner. While there, a _____ woman wiped Jesus'
(adjective)

_____ with her _____ and poured _____ on them.
(body part) (body part) (a liquid)

The Pharisee was shocked, so Jesus told a story about 2 men who owed _____.
(noun, likely plural)

One owed _____ and the other _____ and both were forgiven.
(a number) (a number)

Jesus talked about how the one who had been forgiven most would love most and then he said that the Pharisee had not provided even _____ for washing his feet and hadn't given him (a liquid)

a _____. Then he told the woman that her _____ were forgiven!
(noun) (noun, likely plural)