

Luke 8, a mad lib

Jesus told the people a story about a _____ who planted lots of _____.
(job/occupation) (noun, plural)

in the _____. Some of them got eaten by _____, some of them (noun) (animal, plural)

fell in an area with lots of _____ and dried up when they didn't get _____.
(noun, plural) (a liquid)

some of them got crowded out by _____, and some grew and produced (noun, plural)

_____ times more! Jesus said that those with _____ should listen.
(a number) (body part, plural)

The disciples were confused, so Jesus explained that he had been talking about God's _____.
(noun)

in the _____ of those who hear.
(body part, plural)

Then Jesus said that no one would light a _____ and then hide it under a _____.
(noun) (piece of furniture)

They put it where it can be seen!

Jesus and his followers got into a _____ and started to cross the _____.
(noun) (noun, something big)

Jesus was _____ and fell asleep. A huge _____ came and the disciples woke up (emotion) (noun)

Jesus, saying, "We're going to _____!" But Jesus stopped it.
(action verb)

Once across, they met a man who lived by the _____ and didn't wear _____.
(noun, plural) (noun, likely plural)

The man was full of demons and he _____ at Jesus. Then he begged Jesus to let him go (verb +ed, something you can do to someone else)

into some nearby _____ and then they rushed into the lake and _____.
(animal, plural) (action verb, past tense)

When Jesus crossed back over, he was met by a synagogue _____ named Jairus, whose (job/occupation)

daughter was very sick. She was _____ years old. On the way, a woman with a sickness (number)

that made her _____ touched Jesus' _____ and was healed!
(action verb) (something you can wear)

As they continued on, some messengers came and told them that the daughter was _____.
(adjective)

Jesus told them not to be _____, but to _____.
(an emotion) (action verb)

Then he healed the girl and told her parents to give her some _____.
(noun, maybe plural)