

Luke 9, a mad lib

Jesus gave his _____ disciples _____ to make demons _____ (number) (noun) (action verb)

and sent them out to tell people about God and to heal people who were _____.
(adjective)

He told them not to take any _____ or _____ but to stay in (noun, plural) (noun plural)
houses in each _____ they visited.
(noun)

After the disciples got back, they went with Jesus to the town of _____ and a huge (noun starting with "B") crowd followed them. They ran out of _____. Jesus told the disciples to take care (noun, plural)

of it, but they said that they only had 5 loaves of _____ and 2 _____, and (noun, plural) (animal, plural)
there were 5,000 hungry men plus women and _____.
(something alive, plural)

Jesus had the people _____ and then he looked up to _____, gave thanks, (action verb, something you can do) (noun)
and they gave the food to the people. Afterwards, there were _____ baskets of leftovers!
(number)

After that, Jesus went up a _____ to _____ and Peter, James, (noun, something big) (verb, something you can do) and John went with him. Then Jesus' face changed and became as bright as _____!
(noun, plural)

_____ and Elijah appeared and talked to him. Peter said they should make _____ (noun starting with "M") (number)

_____ (he was scared and didn't know what to say. A _____ covered (noun, plural) (noun)
them, God said they should _____ to Jesus, and then Jesus was alone.
(action verb)

When they came back down, there was a crowd and a man whose son had an evil _____.
(noun)

Jesus healed the boy and the people were _____.
(adjective)

The disciples argued about who was most _____, and Jesus said a child was!
(adjective)

Then some Samaritans didn't want Jesus to come to their town, so James and John wanted to send _____ to rain down on them, but Jesus said, "No."
(noun, something dangerous)

Then Jesus said people have to be serious about following him – they can't want anything else more.