

PAUL'S TRAVELS, a mad lib ANSWER KEY

After Paul became a Christian, he traveled all over the world teaching about Jesus.
(something huge)

One time, in the town of Philippi, he healed a girl who had a spirit that let her know the (noun starting with the "fff" sound)

future. It made her owners very angry when Paul healed her, (another noun starting with "fff") (an emotion)

so they had Paul beaten with rods (or possibly whips) and threw him into jail.
(something long and skinny) (a building)

When it was nearly midnight, Paul was praying and singing (a time) (verb + ing) (another verb + ing)

when suddenly there was a huge earth quake!!!!
(something round)

The doors came open and the prisoners' chains came off.
(a part of a house) (plural noun)

The jailer thought everyone had escaped and was about to fall on his sword, (something sharp)

but Paul called out to him to stop him. The jailer was so amazed that he took Paul to his house, gave him food, and put water on his wounds.

(noun) (a liquid)

The jailer became a Christian and the next day they let Paul go free.

Another time, Paul was on a boat being taken to Rome.
(vehicle) (a big city)

There was a storm and they wrecked at an island, but everyone got safely (kind of bad weather)

to shore either by swimming or by holding on to pieces of wood.
(verb + ing) (plural noun)

Then on the island, while Paul was gathering some sticks, (plural noun)

a poisonous snake bit him, but Paul was okay!
(animal)

The people on the island were amazed, and many of them became Christians.
(an emotion)