

PETER, A ROOSTER, AND SOME SHEEP, a mad lib

The night before Jesus was going to die on the cross, he was eating _____ with his
(a food)

helpers and he told them that they would all _____ soon.
(action verb)

Peter said he would never do that and Jesus told him that before the _____ (animal)

crowed that Peter would say he didn't know him _____ times.
(a number)

Jesus was right, Peter did say he didn't know him. When Peter realized what he had done, he was very, very _____.
(an emotion)

After Jesus had risen from the _____, Peter and some of the other disciples (noun)

decided to go out on the _____ to catch some _____.
(noun – something big) (something alive, plural)

They tried and tried all _____ long, but they didn't catch a single thing.
(noun)

In the _____, someone walked along the _____ and told them to (noun) (noun)

throw their _____ on the other side of the _____.
(noun, plural) (noun)

They did and caught _____!!!!!!
(a number)

One of the helpers told Peter that it was Jesus, so Peter took off his _____ and (noun, something you can wear)

_____ into the water and _____ to the edge.
(action verb) (action verb)

There he found Jesus cooking some _____, which Jesus shared with all of (a food)

them for _____.
(noun)

After they had eaten, Jesus asked Peter, "Do you _____ me?" and Peter said he did.
(verb)

Jesus then told him to feed his _____.
(animal, plural)

Jesus did this _____ times, which made Peter very _____.
(a number) (an emotion) at first, but later on, I think he understood why Jesus had asked him more than once.